

Go Tell Sparta. We have fought the fight, and remain true. We are found in this distant and alien land, yet we survive. The water here is clean and pure, and we have been able to sustain ourselves by eating the grass. We do not know what has caused us to be here, but we have remained true to our country and its flag through it all. Go Tell Sparta.
Peter.